

Volunteer Opportunities

Canada India Foundation needs volunteers to fulfil our mission and we would be delighted to have your support for helping us to meet CIF objectives. We know you will make a difference.

Working as volunteers you will be networking with high profile individuals and leaders in our community. You will hone your management as well as technical skills. At the same time you will make contribution to the greater goal of helping Indo Canadians recognized in the Canadian community.

Type of Volunteers

CIF needs all kinds of volunteers with interest in helping the cause of Indo Canadians and fulfil our mandate. We need people with all disciplines - technical, management, accounting, Information Technology, law, communications, operations, research, politics, policy etc. We also need volunteers who can help us with their soft-skills for various events and initiatives we undertake.

To volunteer send us a short note about you, your interest and how you can help us. Write to Kalyan Sundaram.
